Another Slap in the Face for Agriculture by Polis...

Tuesday, Governor Polis decided to Veto Senate Bill 23-256. This bill was very important to our agricultural sector as it would have ensured that Colorado livestock producers were protected in preserving their way of life.

This Veto is a slap in the face to agriculture. This is just one more action that emphasizes the fact that Polis doesn't respect the second leading economic driver in the state that he is Governor of...
